

AMPD @ Winthrop University

ACCOUNTING, MENTORSHIP AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

THE PROGRAM

AMPD is a competitive program developed from a partnership between Winthrop University's College of Business Administration and big four accounting firm, Pricewaterhouse Coopers (PwC). The program is devoted to increasing the number of underrepresented minorities in the accounting field with emphasis placed on preparing students for entry level positions in the accounting profession.

WHY ACCOUNTING

- Highly sought after skills
- Job opportunities
- Rewarding career
- Numerous career paths
- Professional certifications

WHAT WE OFFER

- Professional development from accounting professionals
- Tutoring/ study hall
- Consideration for internships, externships and full-time positions
- PwC mentor
- Scholarships
- Special housing

QUALIFICATIONS

- Admission into Winthrop University
- 3.0 high school GPA on 4.0 scale
- 500 - MATH SAT or 18 - MATH ACT
- Active participation in extracurricular activities
- Business Administration-Accounting major
- Maintain 3.0 GPA in college

QUICK FACTS

- Program started in 2017
- All seniors have been accepted into grad school or have a full-time position when they graduate
- All students have received $500-2,000 scholarships/ year
- More than half of the students have 3.5 GPAs
- More than half of the students have internships with PwC or other Fortune 500 companies

CONTACT

Vanessa Valdez, AMPD Program Director
valdezv@winthrop.edu

WEBSITE

www.winthrop.edu/cba/accounting/ampd

SPONSORED BY

College of Business Administration